

Women's Day

On March 7th, 2023 at Indrashil University

Imagine a gender equal world. A world free of bias, stereotypes, and discrimination. A world that's diverse, equitable, and inclusive. A world where difference is valued and celebrated. Together we can forge women's equality. The UN theme for this year's International Women's Day is "DigitALL: Innovation and technology for gender equality".

We at Indrashil University celebrated the International Women's Day on March 7th, 2023.

The ICC cell of Indrashil University planned celebration of International Women's Day; the details are entailed below.

Celebration of International Women's Day at IU

The celebration of women's day started at 2:00 pm at the seminar hall, Block A of Indrashil University. Celebration started with lamp lighting ceremony along with saraswati vandana by the students

Inauguration of Women's Day celebration (Lighting of the Lamp)

Vice Chancellor of the University Prof. (Dr.) J.S. Yadav sir gave his blessings and shared his views on importance of women in the society. He also told the power of a woman in the form of goddess like Saraswati and Kali. He put the emphasis on role of women in the development of society and said the reason for declination of any society or country is because women are not respected.

Dr. J. S. Yadav on the International Women's Day

Pro vice chancellor Dr. Richa Dayaramani also addressed the female staff and students on the occasion of women's day celebration. She said "Gender equality is a right. Fulfilling this right is the best chance we have in meeting some of the most pressing challenges of our time. Women are not only more affected by the problems, but also possess ideas and leadership to solve them. The gender discrimination still holding too many women back, holds our world back too." She put the emphasis on holding the hands together for a better future. She said that women should hand hold each other and come out stronger.

Speech of Pro Vice Chancellor Dr. Richa Dayaramani on the International Women's Day

Followed by the address of Vice Chancellor and Pro vice chancellor various activities were planned by students like singing, dance, mime and act showing the importance of women in the society. These activities were followed by giving a gift to participating students for their support and enthusiasm for celebration.

The program ended with a vote of thanks by ICC-Chairperson, Dr. Namrata Bajaj, and refreshment to all.
